RATIONALE

“...in establishing and conducting Catholic schools one must keep modern developments in mind” (Vatican Council II, p734)

The Catholic Education Commission of Western Australia has a responsibility, in co-operation with schools and their communities, to make policies that promote Catholic education in accordance with authentic Catholic principles.

In accordance with the teachings of the Catholic Church, the practice of communication regardless of the medium, must be honest and reflect the highest standard of accountability and sensitivity to human rights and relationships.

As a privilege and gift from God, new learning needs to be accompanied by the development of a matching sense of social responsibility. (Mandate, para 72)

The need for primary schools to incorporate computers into the curriculum, stems from the technological demands of our society. They are a powerful educational resource and a unique instrument of learning, allowing for student participation and interaction.

Within this signed agreement, Infant Jesus School expects Parents/Guardians to make responsible choices when using Information and Communication Technologies at school. The guidelines outlined for Staff and Students equally apply to Parents / Guardians and the extended community.

Parents need to be aware that using emails to communicate with staff will not receive an instant reply. In fact response times may vary. Urgent matters must be directed by phone to the school office.

Specifically and in addition to the guidelines for Staff and Students, Parents / Guardians need to adhere to the following. Parents need to:
• Take full responsibility for all downloaded material present on their child/children’s personal device/iPad.
• Accept responsibility for their child’s use of technology at Infant Jesus School.
• Understand that correspondence during school time can only occur through the school office. Parents may not email children directly during school hours.

• Understand the danger of taking mobile phones in toilets. This action is expressly forbidden. Mobile phones may not be taken into toilets under any circumstances.
• Understand privacy laws pertaining to photography. At school or a school function parents may take photographs of their children but they may not take photographs of other children without the permission of the children’s parents. This permission needs to be in writing and presented to the school prior to the specific function in question.
• Understand that privacy laws do not allow parents to mention, or post photos of people/children of Infant Jesus School.
• Understand that privacy laws restrict parents in their reference to Infant Jesus School. All reference needs to uphold the Catholic Ethos of the School.
• Understand that any reference pertaining to Infant Jesus School may not be made on social network sites, email or other technology unless it is approved by the School and upholds the Ethos of the School.
• Understand that the digital footprint that is established the minute a person begins posting items/photographs on social network sites will be there forever. This can have severe repercussions for the future of their children and their family.
• Understand that a breach in the above policy may result in the suspension or termination of their child’s enrolment at the school.
